VOL. 36 BARIUM SPRINGS, N. C., FEBRUARY 1957 No. 2

CONTRACT LET FOR TWO NEW COTTAGES

The Buildings and Grounds Committee met at Barium Springs on January 29th to open the bids for the new cottages. The Wagoner Construction Company of Salisbury was low bidder and was awarded the contract. The two cottages will be rebuilt in the same places where the old ones stood and will be one story fireproof buildings. Special effort has been made to make them as home-like as it is possible to do so for the sixteen children who will live there. There will be eight rooms for two children to the room, a housemother's room, dining-room, kitchen, and living-room, and back porch and play area. The dining-room, at present, will serve as a study hall and playroom. If there should ever arise a time in the future when each cottage needed to be self-contained, the cottage would be ready for it.

The architects of J. N. Pease & Company, of Charlotte have given study to the location of these two buildings and their type of structure as a kind of beginning for additional buildings if and when they are to be built. The one-story fireproof building is to be the pattern for all future construction.

It is planned to have these buildings ready for occupancy in July or August of this year. It is hoped that the children can be ready to take up residence as they return from their vacation a little after the middle of July.

TEN HOLSTEINS ADDED TO HERD

The boys of the dairy barn are mighty proud of the ten new Holsteins which were added to the dairy herd during January. Mr. James K. Glenn of Winston-Salem, N. C. has taken a special interest in the quality of Barium's milking herd. His last gift included three cows, four bred heifers, and three yearlings. This fine addition will enable Mr. Arthur Hanks, the dairyman, to move toward his desired goal of increasing the out-put of the milk by improving the quality of his herd.

Since the Home is required to serve processed milk and since it is deemed inadvisable to erect a processing plant on the campus, it is necessary to produce and sell the raw milk and buy back the processed milk from the local dairies.

THESE ARE HAPPY MOODS AND THEY ARE TYPICAL OF LIFE AT BARIUM

NEWS FROM THE COTTAGES

Lottie Walker 2nd Floor

Hello Everyone,

Here we are back again with our news. We have all had a good time going to birthday parties this month. We have two birthdays in February, which are Ronald Brown and Michael Roderick.

We all were very glad that our girls won the basketball game. The other team was Spencer. The score was 48-49. The last of the game was very thrilling. We won by just one point. The boys played a good game, too. Today our Junior Varsity team played their first game. The girls won, the boys lost.

We all hope it snows again. Last time it snowed we all had fun sliding and snowball fighting. Though some of our seats were sore, we still enjoyed sliding on the icy sidewalks.

Six of our boys made the honor roll. We hope more make it next time.

Tonight we saw a film in Church with the title of "As The Twig Is Bent". It was very good.

Several days ago, we had our "check-ups". Most of our boys were in good condition.

Well, this about winds up our news for this month.

Ronald Brown and the Boys of Lottie
Walker Second Floor.

The Bee Tree

Hi—

Here's the Bee Tree again—Mama Bee and thirteen little Bees, and all so very happy.

It is a good thing we are not real bees—for if we had been we would probably have missed our check-up last week. The doctor said to our last group of girls, "You just sparkle!" We do, too, we are full of milk and all the other good foods.

Five of our girls are in the fifth grade and this grade gave a program on January 25th. Certainly. we felt good when so many people told us that it was a good program.

Six little Bees made the Honor Roll — you guess who is glad and who is sad over that situation!

Mama Bee got stuck to the sewing machine — or should we say "mending machine". We little Bees are pretty rough on clothes.

Our cottage, along with everyone else on the campus, is very proud of our Youth Fellowship. They led our Worship Service in such a beautiful way last Sunday that we wonder if we can ever grow up to be half as good.

We all write this column together and when the Messenger comes out we crowd all over to see how it looks in print.

Love to all you good people who support and love us.

The Bee Tree

Howard Cottage

Hi There—

We're back again. We all feel refreshed after the holidays, and are doing some real hard studying.

The Junior Varsity has played its first game in basketball. Brenda Shepherd, Vivki Brafford, and Elva Medlin made the team and were scared almost to death at the thought of playing in front of everyone. We won! Score—36 to 21.

BARIUM SPRINGS TAKES OVER NORTH PIEDMONT LEAD

By JERRY JOSEY
Statesville Record &
Landmark Sports Editor

ASHEBORO. — Forward Charles Ward shot, missed his mark, grabbed the rebound off the floor and shot again with 12 seconds left on the clock.

This time he found his target.

Barium Springs' Tornadoes took over sole possession of the North Piedmont Conference top spot in the resulting 56-54 victory on Ward's field goal. It couldn't have happened at a better time. Asheboro had one other chance, but threw a bad pass out of bounds and that was it.

The victory for Coach Archie Calhoun's boys was sweet revenge for a 59-34 defeat—their only North Piedmont loss of the season—that Asheboro pinned on them in their opening game this season. Since then, the Tornadoes have swept through the conference's opposition untouched.

An Asheboro rally in the fourth—plus the fact that two starters had fouled out and another was on the bench—almost cost the Tornadoes as the Blue Comets put on a fine stretch drive in the fourth. They pressed all the way to cut down Barium's 47-34 lead at the start of the period.

Barium's defense held Asheboro well in check in the first half, limiting the Comets to only four field goals. But the fine defensive work cost them heavily in fouls. Walter "Dub" Plyler, the fine center of the Tornadoes who is counted upon to supply the offensive punch, had four fouls on him in the first two minutes of the second quarter. Plyler sat out the remainder of the half, coming back to lead Barium in the third period, only to foul out with 30 seconds gone in the fourth stanza.

Still the little center with springs in his legs racked up 25 points to lead the Barium victory. It turned out to be somewhat of a duel between Asheboro's Bennie Voncannon and Plyler. Voncannon, playing the entire game, sank 28 points, 10 on foul shots. Plyler grabbed 25, sinking 13 of 17 foul shots in the total. Both were rebounding well, along with Lawton Rice, Ronnie Hudgins and LeNair Burns of Barium and Ronald Henson and Tee Redding of Asheboro.

Shotwise, Barium gained the edge with 19 of 46 field goal attempts and 18 of 28 foul shots finding their mark. Asheboro hit 16 of 60 field goal attempts and 22 of 38 foul shots.

The first quarter proved decisive for Barium. They hit six of 12 field goal attempts and 11 of 14 foul shots to spring into a 23-13 lead. Asheboro managed only two of 12 field goal attempts and nine of 13 foul shots. That later resulted in the difference.

Asheboro grabbed the lead at the outset and held it for 2:30 of the first period and it was knotted three times. Plyler's two foul shots tied it up at 5-5, Ronnie Hudgins dropped in a rebound, Plyler hit two straight goals and two foul shots for a 13-5 lead with 4:04 left in the quarter.

FROM LITTLE JOE'S CHURCH

REV. ROBERT R. COLLINS, Minister

Assembly's Youth Sunday is always one of the high-lights in the year for me. At this time the retiring members of the Senior High Fellowship Council conduct the morning worship hour in Little Joe's Church and at the close of this service the new Council members are installed in a candle-light service.

The theme for our Senior High Youth this year is "Christian Brotherhood", which ties in closely with the Forward With Christ Emphasis for the entire church of "Christian Citizenship". Throughout the entire program on January 27th I was moved as I heard the young people express in their own words the Christian experiences and convictions which are theirs. This marked the third year of observing Assembly's Youth Sunday since I have been pastor of Little Joe's Church and I could look back and remember these same young people as they were beginning their Senior High development three years ago. Under the guidance of Christian cottage mothers, parents, church and public school teachers, campus workers, and the leadership of the total program of the church these young people have broadened their concept of Christian responsibility and soon will move out into other churches with the faith they have found through the witness of the church.

My reason for mentioning all of this is because of your relationship to Little Joe's Church and the Presbyterian Orphans' Home. Our witness here depends greatly upon each of you. I refer not so much to your gifts of money, although these are essential, but particularly to your continued concern and regular prayers for our work with these young people who are given into the keeping of the Synod of North Carolina. Many of these boys and girls would receive little or no Christian guidance were it not for this Home and this Church. From the Presbyterian Orphans' Home we have exactly 100 resident church members, in addition to an equal number who attend our services but who are not yet old enough to join the church. In comparison we have only sixty-five resident adult members over twenty-one years of age. Yet, into our hands is committed the wonderful privilege and opportunity of leading more than two-hundred young people to mature faith in Jesus Christ as their Lord and Saviour.

At Little Joe's Church we do not shrink back from this tremendous responsibility. But as we offer our thanks to God who has given us the task and who will also supply the strength to carry out His work, we most sincerely urge you to remember each day the family that is yours, Under The Steeple.

COTTAGE NEWS

The choir had a party on Wednesday and we all enjoyed it very much. For an ice-breaker we played a game. They pinned the name of a movie star or a person in a comic strip on our backs. Mr. A. M. was Dennis The Menace. Doesn't it fit him?

Bye for now,
The Bean Stringers

Rumple Hall Cottage

Hi Friends—

It has been quite awhile since you have heard from us, but here we are again.

We got report cards about a week ago. Even though only five of our girls made the honor roll, every one brought up their grades and made pretty good report cards. Today we were honored with the presence of a foreign exchange teacher at school. She is a Persian teacher and we will not ruin her name by trying to spell it.

Several of our girls have gone out for Junior Varsity Basketball. They are very impatiently waiting for their first game which will be on Wednesday.

A few weeks ago some of our Belmont friends came up and visited on the campus. The Pioneers had supper and a meeting with them. On Sunday night Dr. Workman from Davidson spoke to our Young People. We are all very fond of Dr. Workman and enjoyed his talk.

Some of the girls were experimenting in the kitchen and found out that fudge will not get hard if you do not go by directions.

Sunday was Assembly's Youth Sunday and our Young People had the Church Program and tried to show the congregation what we have done in the Senior High Fellowship this past year. One of our girls, Edna Evans, was installed on the Council at this service.

This is all of the news for now, so good-bye.

The Rumple Hall Girls

MY LIFE AT BARIUM

BERNICE KUYKENDALL

At the age of seven, I came to Barium from another orphanage, and unlike most newcomers, I was not afraid. I had become acquainted with large groups, but not one quite so large as the family at Barium.

The day I arrived I was taken to the old camp on the Catawba River where all the children my age were enjoying themselves swimming and playing. One girl I noticed, who was then about eight, had lipstick and rouge caked on her face so that I could hardly tell what she looked like. I talked to her for awhile and never thought that in later years she would become my best girl friend.

That night I was taken to the infirmary where I stayed for the first few days, and then I went to the Annie Louise Cottage where I lived for the next two years. I had a housemother who loved her orphan children very much. On the first day I moved to her cottage she brought out the Child's Catechism and for weeks she drilled me on it until I knew every word and could recite it from memory. I was a very proud little girl, two or three Sundays later, when I walked down the aisle of Little Joe's Church and received my New Testament and two dollars given by Mr. Belk.

Although I already knew my manners well, this housemother taught me the importance of using them. When we would go to church she would always say, "If you get sleepy, just pick one foot off the floor and hold it there." Or she would say, "If you think you are about to sneeze, put your finger under your nose."

As I grew older I moved on from one cottage to the next, learning something new at each cottage. The cottage which I remember most was Rumple Hall where we learned to wait on tables, scrub floors, and wash dishes. Every now and then I hear someone say that we were the meanest group on the campus at that time, but we were not really mean—we were just full of mischief and always looking for fun.

From there I moved to the Baby Cottage where I helped to take care of ten little boys. Living at the Baby Cottage was a great experience for me because I had a chance to teach them some of the things which I had learned such as saying "thank you," "yes, ma'am," and "no, sir." They also learned to brush their teeth, make up their beds, tie their shoes, and dress themselves. The little things which they said and did were what made my two years there enjoyable ones.

I now live at the Woman's Building and my job there is to help clean house and work in the kitchen. In the kitchen I help to prepare the food and see that the floor and dishes are clean.

Now that I am a senior and spending my last year at Barium Springs, I often wonder what it would have been like to live in a home with my family. As I think about it, I come to the conclusion that I am living with my family. Though it may be a larger one than most, it has taught me many things that otherwise I might not have known. There has come also the realization that God has put me here himself, and I will strive to make the best possible use of the knowledge and experience which my Barium home has given me.

BARIUM SPRINGS TAKES OVER NORTH PIEDMONT LEAD

From that point on, it was all Barium. The Tornadoes rolled up to a 16-point lead in the third as Plyler hit three foul shots and a goal with three minutes gone for a 45-29 lead.

Holding a 13-point lead going into the fourth, Asheboro narrowed it down to a 54-45 margin with two minutes to go. Barium was using Jim Bunnell, Randy Shaw and Donald Frazier, along with regulars Rice and Ward, when Asheboro moved fast. Goals by Bunnell and Shaw gave them some much-needed confidence to weather the storm as Asheboro pressed the inexperienced trio continuously.

Voncannon hit a jump shot; Caviness sank a push shot for 54-49; Donald Lineberry dropped in two foul shots and Tee Redding hit a goal and was fouled by Barium's Frazier to cut it down to 54-53. With 30 seconds to go, Redding's foul shot knotted it up at 54-54.

Barium moved down court. Ward shot and missed and Tornado supporters knew that was it. But the rebound rolled off the fingertips of Voncannon and Redding and Ward scooped it up off the floor, jumped and shot a perfect basket for 56-54 with 12 seconds to go.

That final goal was a fitting climax to an all-Presbyterian evening at Asheboro. Barium's girls captured a 65-58 win over the Comet sextette, gaining revenge for a one-point defeat suffered at Johnston Gymnasium earlier.

Again Asheboro fouls against Barium paid off. Both were fairly even in field goal attempts with Barium hitting 25 of 67 and Asheboro sinking 24 of 67. But Barium's 15 of 26 from the foul line against Asheboro's 10 of 21 figured in the final analysis.

Both were knotted, 13-13, at the end of the first period. Asheboro pulled into a 32-26 halftime lead and appeared on their way toward sole possession of sixth place in the conference standings. Barium rallied in the third period for a one-point lead and moved out front to stay in the fourth stanza on good defensive work by Nancy Kyles, Addie McEwen, JudyBolton, and Janet Woodall, who was playing with an injured left knee.

Dolores Grayson and Shelby McEwen matched goals in the opening seconds for a 2-2 knot and Bernice Kuykendall's long push shot erased an Asheboro lead and enabled Barium to knot it at 13-13 at the end of the quarter. Grayson and McEwen again matched goals to open the second period, but Asheboro, with little Jane McGrary hitting from the foul line, moved away in the second.

Peggy Sellers could well be determined the difference for Barium. The redheaded pointmaker had four fouls on her in the first half and only five points. She threw in 20 points in the final half to team with Shelby McEwen and the long clutch shots of Bernice Kuykendall to notch Barium's third win.

Barium took the lead with 1:15 left in the third period on Sellers' foul shot 43-42 after knotting the tally twice. They never trailed from that point, holding a 13-point lead at one point.

Grayson, who was pulled by her coach in the third period, came on to spark the Asheboro bid in the final half, but couldn't match Barium's points after the Tornadoes had built up the lead.
